MATRIMONIAL. A YOUNG LADY, OF BRAUTY AND REFINEMENT, who has been spending a few weeks South, and became delighted with Southern society and the liberal Southern views, regrets having to return to her cold-hearred Northern bome. She is very gay, and by her friends called beautiful, and it he height of her ambilion to form the immediate acquinitation of a high and liberal minded Southern gentleman with a view to matrimony. She bega that none but gentlemen able to support and appreciate a young lady will reply to this. Such may address, in strict condicience, studies age, place of residence and any particulars. To Hamilton Fish.

Gentlemen—Fermi me to ask your kind induigence while I seek your help for the orphan children of the late Capt. J. D. Wilson, under circumstances most painful te me as well as the children themselves. Masfortune in business, followed by mental derangement, has placed my husband without the power to support those whose reliance in Infancy rested upon him. Without referring to my own condition, which is in no way less painful. I feel that it is my duty to do my utmost to protect and relieve those little ones who have failen innocent victims to the unsound condition of my husband's mind ere it was known to me or my friends. I therefore propose to make an effort in their behalf, as well as my own, by offering ny services, with those of distinguished artists, under your patronage and kind-ness, and respectfully ask permission of you to de so. R. W. L. D. Hamilton fish, and the understyned, have read your note of this date, and cheerfully consent to the use of our names for the purpose of carrying out your presseworthy intentions, in taking the orphas children to whom you allude, to support and protect. And we hope that you will receive a hearty and liberal suppost from the New York public.
